EDITORIAL

The pursuit of happiness is one of the prime goals of human life in its spiritual and material dimension—material in this world and spiritual hereafter. Happy or unhappy, Man is in quest of happiness and excellence. Happiness and human life are, however, anathema to each other. Change is the law of life and nature.

A poet once said:

Phool khilte hain bikharne ka tasawwur lekar
Jisko hansta hua paoge pareshan hoga

The same idea has been essentially expressed by Robert Frost in the poem "Nothing Gold can Stay":

Nature's first green is gold,
Her hardest hue to hold.
Her early leaf's a flower;
But only so an hour.
Then leaf subsides to leaf,
So Eden sank to grief,
So dawn goes down to day.
Nothing gold can stay.

In the postmodern world, however, happiness is linked with excellence, merit, knowledge, power and inclusive education with an added focus on spiritual and mental growth which is the raison d'être of Integral University where each student of every class or course is one of the main foci of administration and faculty. Integral University not only educates its students but also trains them for the New-Age challenges, pulls and pressures of futuristic market forces and the growing demands of excellence in research. It is no wonder then that our University with its myriad achievement is the pride of its alumni and object of envy for other hubs of technical education and allied ever widening stores of knowledge and education. The ideology of excellence and identity of merit are the hallmarks of Integral University. It can gloriously proclaim:

'Zindagi ki har kahani beasar ho jayegi
hum na honge to ye duniya dar badar ho jaegi'

Non-parallel instruction, sensitive and soulful mentoring and humanistic focus on personality development are the signature tunes of Integral University. All these and other invaluable facets of the life on the campus have been highlighted in the current issue of the Newsletter.

Government of India identifies the Department of Biosciences, Integral University as the DST-FIST assisted center.

The Department of Biosciences has been granted the prestigious Funding for Infrastructure in Science and Technology (FIST) by the Department of Science and Technology, Ministry of Science and Technology, Government of India. The DST-FIST award is granted to Departments with high research calibre and excellent performance of the students graduating from the department as evidenced through extramural funding attracted by the faculty, high-impact research publication, and selection of students for national fellowships and scholarships.

Adviser and G-grade scientist Dr. A. Mukhopadhyay in a letter to the university has said that the proposal of the university has been accepted for support under the Fund for Improvement of Science and Technology (FIST) to strengthen the research facilities in the department. The support of the university, being a private academic institution, will be shared on a 50:50 basis.

As part of the award, the Department of Biosciences will be given funding for infrastructure and high-end instruments to the tune of Rs. 58 lakh. The long-drawn process for getting this award involved stringent screening of application, which was followed by a presentation before an empowered committee 'FIST Advisory Board' (FISTAB) of DST at its office in New Delhi.

The Department of Biosciences took the mantle of achieving this feat, which was a cherished desire of our Revered Chancellor, Prof. Syed Waseem Akhtar, upon itself, and had been doing the groundwork for the same for the past two years. It is with his blessings and encouragement that the department has emerged successful. The Project Implementation Group for the DST-FIST is as follows: Prof. Neelam Pathak (Chairperson), Dr. Saheem Ahmad (Coordinator), Dr. Preeti Bajpai (Co-coordinator), Dr. M. Salman Khan (Co-coordinator), Dr. Mohd Sajid Khan (Co-coordinator), and Dr. Irfan Ahmad Ansari (Co-coordinator).

Prof. M.K.J. Siddiqui, Vice Chancellor of the University said that this prestigious award is a cause for all the "Integralians" to revel and will give us courage and motivation to further explore the as-yet uncharted territories in the arena of science and research and make Integral University a name to reckon with in the top echelons of academia and research, worldwide!

The two eventful days were full of relevant discussions on how the economic reforms are of immense importance and use to a common man. Prof. Furqan Qamar, Secretary General, AIU, threw light on the various governmental policies towards Make in India, Digital India and Skill India and their Implication. Amidst these two day of power information exchange from the distinguished guests a variety of cultural events were performed by the Integralites from the department of commerce and business management including the college band performance, poetry, singing and many more. All the performances were planned and coordinated with immense hard work of the teachers and students and much appreciated by the academia present. The main highlight throughout the evening had been the group performances of the women power. Flawless synchronisation and dynamic vocals indeed made it a mesmerising evening.
